Lying

Stitchie

I got this feeling lately
Something's on your mind
Your friends don't like me baby
Wonder what they've said today
You know I love you
What's going on?
Let's move on, don't think about it
Know that they are wrong
You gotta hold on
No matter what they say
If you fail to be strong
They're gonna have it just their way
'Cause my heart ain't lying
No, my heart ain't lying
'Cause my heart ain't lying
Is there something baby?
Can't you give a sign?
This stories they are telling
You know every words are lie
You can believe me
My love is true
Let's move on
Those people only like to see you blue
You gotta hold on
No matter what they say
If you fail to be strong
They're gonna have it just their way
'Cause my heart ain't lying
'Cause my heart ain't lying
No, my heart ain't lying
'Cause my heart ain't lying
No, my heart ain't lying
