Drop D

Betchadupa

Got a tattoo
Got it colored in with blue
'Cuz it's a picture on your cold, sad face
And now it's true
We're probably better off apart
And we knew it from the start
But you never wanna stop
Wantin' me wantin' you, no
Get up I think it's time for you to go
I don't know why you stayed or what you're waitin' for
I'll get by
As long as you want me
I'll be fine
As long as you need me
As long as you leave me
Got a new shirt
Tryin' to cover up the hurt
'Cuz I don't ever wanna show you what you did
And now it's done
We're so much better off in bed
But we're fucked up in the head
And we never wanna stop
Wantin' more, such a whore, no
Get up and let me watch you dance some more
We both know why you came and what you're lookin' for
I'll get by
As long as you want me
I'll be fine
As long as you need me
I'll get by
As long as you want me
As long as you leave me, yeah
Never wanna stop, never wanna stop
Never wanna stop, never wanna stop
I'll get by
As long as you want me
I'll be fine
As long as you need me
I'll get by

As long as you need me
As long as you leave me
