

I Can't Let You Go

Camp Chayolei Hamelech

The banquet is starting, but I do not go
My thoughts and my feelings I don't want to show
The last night of camp is slowly approaching
I sit on the stairs and the tears just are flowing

How nervous I was coming to camp
Now looking back, I don't understand
I'm soon starting school, but I won't forget you
Oh Camp Chayolei, a dream come true

Chayolei Hamelech, I can't let you go
In the time that I spent here so much I did grow
The Rebbe's chossid I now want to be
Davening and learning is now part of me

Dear friends that I made here, I want you to know
Through spreading Moshiach wherever we go
We are united, one mission, one goal
We'll march to Geulah together as a whole

Camp is now over, I'm now on my way
Goodbye to my counselor, it's so hard to say
You've taught me so much, I'll see you again
In 770, b'ezras Hashem

Dear camper of mine, you're just not the same
So much you did gain from the day that you came
Although you are leaving, I know you'll continue
I'm sure that the Rebbe is so proud of you
