Anathema

Is it the emptiest of all your broken hearted feelings
A serious misconception to choose a path that led to ruin? I live for today
Can't get away from the burning inside
Ashes to ash, dust to dust So quick to point the finger
When you're the source of your condition
Why should I feel sympathy when you only show me nothing? I live for today
Can't get away from the burning inside
Ashes to ash, dust to dust I could stare for a thousand years
Penetrate your deepest fears
Leave you cold with a faceless embrace
Then disappear without a trace I live for today
Can't get away from the burning inside
Ashes to ash, dust to dust
