

When You Go

Celtic Woman

Now the time has come, pack your true belongings.

Fill your heart with love, travel is homecoming.

Do not fear to fade, find the strength within you.

Sing your song today of summer on its way.

When the night comes, look to the skies,

fairy tales told of pixies disguised.

When the night comes, you will arise,

the stars in the sky will lead you back home. When you go will you take my love with you with your heartbeat?

Over rivers, streams, and mountains high and low.

When you leave will you take my love with you with your heartbeat?

All I want is bring back to me.

When you go.

When you go.

Now the time has come, pack your true belongings.

Fill your heart with love, travel is homecoming.

Over stormy seas, journey to adventure,

overcome our needs, conquer your dreams.

When the night comes, look to the skies,

fairy tales told of pixies disguised. When you go will you take my love with you with your heartbeat?

Over rivers, streams, and mountains high and low.

When you leave will you take my love with you with your heartbeat?

All I want is bring back to me.

When you go. When you go, When you go, When you go,

When you go, When you go, When you go,

When you go-o-o, When you go-o-o, When you go.

All I want is bring back to me.

When you go will you take my love with you with your heartbeat?

Over rivers, streams, and mountains high and low.

When you leave will you take my love with you with your heartbeat?

All I want to bring back to me.

When you go.
