

Ten Feet Under

Bonsai Nation

Everyday to you is just a reason to be a menace to my home
But as the people paying you, it'd be nice if you'd leave us alone
We're hearing what you're saying, but you're playing by completely different rules
It's just an endless struggle here, trying to find who's really being fooled

Freeze you motherfucking flaw
I am the state, I am the law
Do what I say, not what I do
I am above you

Everyday to you is just a reason to abuse the powers of your job
Get the hell away from me, you motherfuckers only do me wrong
It's not that I don't know why, but what's to understand?
All you're doing now is fighting me, wanting everything but life from me

Freeze you motherfucking flaw
I am the state, I am the law
Do what I say, not what I do
I am above you, oh

But if you want to be free
You must obey me
What can you do, what can you say,
With such relentless persecution of truth?

Nothing was a problem till your badge began to overthrow my will
All I have is fear of you, yet you claim to protect and serve me still
I'm hearing what you're saying but you're making up these really awful laws
All you do is fight me, you're wanting everything but life from me

But if you want to be free
You must obey me
What can you say, what can you do,
With such relentless persecution of truth?
