Side Note (feat. LissA)

Palastic

When it's right, my aces you weren't held in that.
Tryin' out the words, should covers crumblin' up.
And all I wanna do, all I wanna be.
All you've gotta say, All I've done is seek.

Those that once were wolves will come find you.
Lost what once was love is still by you.
Soak it in patron, let it end, go.

Those that once were wolves will come find you.
Lost what once was love is still by you.
Soak it in patron, let it end, go.

Oh oh. Ooo-oo-oo.
Ooo-uh-oh.

Sitting straight up, but your spine's all crooked now.
Goes to what scars, no doubt, beat it now.

And all I wanna do, all I wanna be.
All you've gotta say, All that i've done is see.

Those that once were wolves will come find you.
Lost what once was love is still by you.
Soak it in patron, let it end, go.

Those that once were wolves will come find you.
Lost what once was love is still by you.
Soak it in patron, let it end, go.

They call me psycho, cause' I remind you.
You let me go, and he was beside me.
Sight my powers, no one that will like you
Guard yourself because spirits we will do.

They call me psycho, cause' I remind you.

You let me go, and he was beside me.
Sight my powers, no one that will like you
Guard yourself because spirits we will do.

Spirits we will do.
