We Are Stars

The Pierces

we are stars
fashioned in the flesh and bone
we are islands
Excuses to remain alone,
we are moons,
we throw are selves around eachother,
we are oceans,
Being controlled by the pull of another.
And I just wanna be loved by you,
Yeah I just wanna be loved by you,
I see nothing worse than to sail this universe without you.
when we met,
I was pulling an angel out of a liar,
We forget,
Satisfaction kills our desire,
We are dreamers,

Wishing upon what we were born from,
We made plans,
Kill them ourselves,
And then we mourn them.
And I just wanna be loved by you,
Yeah I just wanna be loved by you,
I see nothing worse than to sail this universe without you.
And I just wanna be loved by you,
Yeah I just wanna be loved by you,
I see nothing worse than to sail this universe without you.
(I just wanna be loved by you)
I see nothing worse than to sail this universe without you.
(I just wanna be loved by you)
I see nothing worse than to sail this universe without you,
Without you.
