

Eyes Can't Hide

Extreme Music

The sky opens wide
You close your eyes
So no one can find you
But still it begins
And so it is
Your eyes can't hide you

You build those castles in the sand

And hope with everything you have
The wind is calm tonight

Looking for answers in the dark
Your searching endless works of art
To find life inside of them
Oh to find light inside of them

But flying gets harder as you fall
Gravity holds no weight at all
When help alludes you
Call on love ohhh
Only on love ohhh

Living for dreams
Or so it seems
They come and they leave you

Fighting for things
So far unseen
But sure to appease you

Hold out your fragile paper heart
Hope for the first time it will start to heal all On its own
Like waving candles in the rain
Your so surprised to see the flame
Has gone out once more
The flame has gone out once more ohhhh

Flying gets harder as you fall

Gravity holds no weight at all
When help alludes you
Call on love ohhh
Only on love ohhh

When logic fails you
And you can't argue any way ohh
When hope is hiding
And you are fighting for the sanity
Remember you don't have to be ohh ohh

Flying gets harder as you fall
Gravity holds no weight at all
When help alludes you
Call on love ohhh
Only on love ohhh
Only on love yeah

The sky opens wide
You close your eyes
Now it won't find you
