Kubrick

John Scofield

Take your time, your time, your time, your time
Everybody know you'll never be like this
Don't be worried, worried, worried, worried
Everybody know you'll never be like thisIt's my tribute to a master of his art
I think he was the one, there's no many of his kind
Danger pictures darkside pictures
Bad behaviors and a vision of the futureHands up, hands up for Stanley
Hands up, hands up for Kubrick
Hands up, hands up for Stanley
Hands up, hands up for Kubrick'Clockwork Orange', Alex devil's eyes
Horns and halos, nocturnal flies
Surrounded by voyeurs and crack smoking lawyers
Nasty, ah, ah, Stanley fueled by the dramaAnd he will never be erased of the memories
His virtuosity launches me
He will always stay in my mind territory
Nasty, ah, ah, Stanley fueled by dramaTake your time, your time, your time, your time
Everybody know you'll never be like this
Don't be worried, worried, worried, worried
Everybody know you'll never be like this'Eyes Wide Shut'How many guys copy ideas of his work
Psycho movies, palsy, ballsy
He'll stay on my mind for a long time
Crazy, ah, ah, Stanley fueled by dramaTake your time, your time, your time, your time
Everybody know you'll never be like this
Don't be worried, worried, worried, worried
Everybody know you'll never be like thisHands up, hands up for Stanley
Hands up, hands up for Kubrick
Hands up, hands up for Stanley
Hands up, hands up for KubrickHands up, put your hands up
Hands up, put your hands up
Hands up, put your hands up
Hands up, put your hands up
