

Rescue

ZZ Ward

Sweet love of mine
There is nothing to fear
I'll hold you close,
Let my sleeves catch your tears Rock you to sleep
When you've had your bad dreams
Sing you a song
When you just can't go on I'll keep you warm
When the fire's getting cold
Straight through the storm
Until we're grey and old And if it all came crashing to the ground
I'd be the one
The one to hold you down When you feel like you're giving up
I will rescue you
When you feel like that world's too much
I will rescue you
When your strength is not enough
I will rescue you It's true, It's true
I'll rescue you (x4)
I'll rescue Sweet love of mine
As the sun creeps through the blinds
You watch me while I'm sleeping
My secrets that you're keeping And I can't explain
It's something so engrained
Like living in a memory
A dream about you and me We walk past the vultures
Ray Charles to their hate
We stayed strong like soldiers
And now we're f*cking great And if it all came crashing to the ground
I'd be the one
The one to hold you down When you feel like you're giving up
I will rescue you
When you feel like that world's too much
I will rescue you
When your strength is not enough
I will rescue you It's true, It's true
I'll rescue you (x4)
I'll rescue I'd do anything for you
I swear that that is true
I'd cross the ocean, touch the sun

I'd bring you back the moon
Never have I felt this way
About anyone before
It's like you've got me lifted
Like you've opened up some door
So give me all your troubles
I'll take them all away
I'll be there on the double,
I'll always keep you safe
And when you think you're drowning
I will resuscitate
And when you're close to broken
I'll never let you break
When you feel like you're giving up
I will rescue you
When you feel like that world's too much
I will rescue you
When your strength is not enough
I will rescue you
It's true, It's true
I'll rescue you (x4)
I'll rescue you
