Napalm In the Morning

Sodom

Decease is just an irony of fate
Multiple rites, I'm gonna lose my way
Paraphillac body control
To slay the phantom from my soulYou're gonna dieUnholy evil prophets rise
Fire's raining from the endless skies
Can you hear the final thunder roaring?
Napalm in the morning, napalm in the morningSkin peeling off to drop your timid mask
You wish that death redeems you fast
Creation of the fire seems the perfect nude
Your carbonized torso just a part of youYou're gonna dieUnholy evil prophets rise
Fire's raining from the endless skies
Can you hear the final thunder roaring?Napalm in the morning
Napalm in the morning
Napalm in the morning
The napalm in the morningCharlie close to me
Smell of gasoline
Physically abusedSee the hollow face
That burned down and raped
Your petition refusedScreaming for your life
Suffocation cries
Religions been lostDancing in the flames
That's your destiny
Surrendered to GodsUnholy evil prophets rise
Fire's raining from the endless skies
Can you hear the final thunder roaring?
Napalm in the morningYou're gonna dieUnholy evil prophets rise
Fire's raining from the endless skies
Can you hear the final thunder roaring?Napalm in the morning
Napalm in the morning
Napalm in the morningTime bomb warrior
Flacking all around
Fighting back their liesYou're my soul insane
Blood stops feeding veins
God damn monkey's biteAshes dung the ground
Infuriate mauled
Recrudescence of woundsThere's no time to waste
Smash 'em without grace
It's coming to you, to you
