The Damned

Obscene
The scene
The dream
ObsceneDemi-gods on golden thrones
Spend most of their time all alone
We're living through them
Until a decent to hell becomes our breakfast thrillFlesh and blood to dust return
But fantasy we learn goes on and onThe dreamShining with an inner light
Indefinable and bright
We begin to smell the kill
Sharing every precarious thrillFlesh and blood may now decay
But forever young always you will stayObscene
Always you will stay
The scene
The dreamBut look coming on the scene
But look coming on the scene
Another cat to die for teenage dreamObscene
The scene
The dream
ObsceneObscene
The scene
The dream
