

New Water

C Duncan

How long I'll wait for.
How long to go, to go.
How far I'll wade for,
For waves to so. But in the light day,
It's not so deep after all.
We'll wait for tides to carry us,
Home again. It's only water,
It sings to me.
It's only water,
Sent back to sea. But in the light day,
It's not so deep after all.
We'll wait for tides to carry us,
Home again.
