Sad World

Simon Steadman

Deep in the heart of itch
you find a cross to bear.
God ain't been kind to you,
but you don't really care.

So take another dream
and find some company,
cause its a sad sad day
in a sad sad world.

Another sad sad day
in a sad sad world.
In a bad bad way
you just can't control.

Come on, stop believing that
your life ain't going nowhere.
Come on, get it to you that you
got no place to go.
Come on, get the feeling that
your shinning a little life in somewhere in a sad sad world.

Deep in the heart of it there's nothing left to lose.
You just can't handle in,
your fatted and your grooved.

So take another sip, you know you can't refuse
cause its a sad sad day
in a sad sad world.

Another sad sad day
in a sad sad world.
In a bad bad way
you just can't control.

Come on, stop believing that
your life ain't going nowhere.
Come on, get it to you that you
got no place to go.
Come on, get the feeling that
your shinning a little life in
somewhere in a sad sad world.

Come on, stop believing that
your life ain't going nowhere.
Come on, get it to you that you
got no place to go.
Come on, get the feeling that
your shinning a little life in somewhere in a sad world.
In a sad world.
In a sad world.
