

The Road to Devastation

Kataklysm

It wasn't so long ago, I remember times
Where life was so cold
Everything was dark and still I thought
I had a chance in lifeThe demons called my name
They dragged me inside the chambers of hell
No one could hear me
I bled tears of painSon, confront me, the road to devastation
Kneel before me, the road to devastation
Inhale, exhale, the road to devastation
This is my life, the road to devastationThe sun would rise, the hope would die inside
Another day of misery as the clock turns to agony
Feel the sense of lost time when everything falls to pieces
And left with a glimpse of lightIt wasn't so long ago I remember times
Where life was so cold
Everything was dark and still I thought
I had a chance in lifeThe demons called my name
They dragged me inside the chambers of hell
No one could hear me, I bled tears of painSon, confront me, the road to devastation
Kneel before me, the road to devastation
Inhale, exhale, the road to devastation
This is my life, the road to devastation
