You Reach Me

Aaron David

Sometimes I wonder what it is Iâ€™m doing here
When I look around me, my whole world seems so unclear
I struggle to find You, Iâ€™m trying to reach out for Your hand
Then when itâ€™s all I can do

You, You reach me
You, You release me

Caught in the movement of a million breaths of wind
Lost in the gladness that Iâ€™m back with you again
Thereâ€™s nothing like it, Iâ€™m gonna ride it
You are the God Who holds it all in Your hands

You, You reach me
You, You release me

And when my world comes crashing down
Still You are with me
Itâ€™s like Iâ€™m just about to drown
Then Youâ€¦

Lord, You, You reach me
You, You release me
You release me
You reach me
You release me
