

Honeybear

Gleemer

Turn yourself around, you weren't invited
Turn yourself around, you weren't invited
Good good things happen in bad towns
Good good things happen in bad townsRunaway, runaway you want it
Runaway, runaway you want it
Runaway, anyway you want it
Runaway, runaway you want itWhat, what did you do to your back hips?
Soft ones, curled lips can't get 'em back
Junk, jump off too much time for
Old beats, cold beats, I'm just cold meatRunaway, runaway you want it
Runaway, runaway you want it
Runaway, anyway you want it
Runaway, runaway you want itOh all alone, I've got a call from the bear
Gonna take all his honey honey
Done, all alone, I've got a call from the bear
Gonna take all his honey honeyDone, all alone, I've got a call from the bear
Gonna take all his honey honey
Done, all alone, I've got a call from the bear
Gonna take all his honey honey!Runaway, runaway you want it
Runaway, runaway you want it
Runaway, anyway you want it
Runaway, runaway you want itWhat? What? What? What?
