

The Lovin' Touch

Tony Orlando

I loved you and left you
And kissed a hundred more
But til I met you
Oh, I never knew
What I was looking for(CHORUS)
Whoa, you've got the loving touch
Yeah, yeah, the loving touch
Your charms are much too much
Baby, you've got the loving touch Just enough of the stuff
You need to satisfy
Your fingertips, oh,
Just make me flip
Baby, you don't even try(CHORUS) Oh, life's play, then someday
We've got to end the show
And, uh, when we kiss
Oh, I know this is
The only way to go
