

Orchard Road

Leo Sayer

To tell the truth, it's really such a sad affair
Standing here, waiting in the cold night air
But I've got to make this call
'Cause my heart is breaking I hear the pips, drop a coin in the slot
Has it been that long? I thought you'd forgotten me
Well, I know that it's getting late
But I just couldn't wait Will I have the nerve to say
I just wanna come back?
You shouldn't just go away
I just wanna come back I've been struck by such a bad luck
I need a place, a little happiness and some love
I think, I can see it now
Now let me paint the picture It's twelve o'clock and the curtains are drawn
They're counting sheep down in Orchard road
You're hanging on the telephone line tonight
And I wish, I could be in Orchard road Not much been happening here
I think I've got a job, they're gonna call me next week
And I'll be working out of town
But it's sure beats hanging around What's that? Tomorrow at two You're kidding me, no, is it alright with you?
I don't know what to say
It'll be like a holiday When you say you're all alone
Makes me wanna come back
And this house is not a home
I just gotta go back It's twelve ten when I put down the phone
Moon's shining down on Orchard road
And I'm feeling like a schoolboy again
And tonight, I'll see you in my dreams of Orchard road It's funny, but I thought I'd never go back
I think sometimes I might lose track
But I remember you and the things we do
I want it back In Orchard road, you've got my heart
I left it in your doorway
In Orchard road, a welcome back
Is waiting there just for me In Orchard road, the sun will shine
Again I know, I know
In Orchard road, you keep my love
Just waiting there for me It's eight o'clock and the dawn's arrived
Orchard road it's breakfast time
I climb in my car and I turn the key and I'm gone

I am coming home to Orchard road
I'm coming home

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>