Orchard Road

Leo Sayer

To tell the truth, it's really such a sad affair Standing here, waiting in the cold night air

But I've got to make this call

'Cause my heart is breaking I hear the pips, drop a coin in the slot

Has it been that long? I thought you'd forgotten me

Well, I know that it's getting late

But I just couldn't waitWill I have the nerve to say

I just wanna come back?

You shouldn't just go away

I just wanna come backI've been struck by such a bad luck

I need a place, a little happiness and some love

I think, I can see it now

Now let me paint the pictureIt's twelve o'clock and the curtains are drawn

They're counting sheep down in Orchard road

You're hanging on the telephone line tonight

And I wish, I could be in Orchard roadNot much been happening here

I think I've got a job, they're gonna call me next week

And I'll be working out of town

But it's sure beats hanging aroundWhat's that? Tomorrow at two

You're kidding me, no, is it alright with you?

I don't know what to say

It'll be like a holidayWhen you say you're all alone

Makes me wanna come back

And this house is not a home

I just gotta go backIt's twelve ten when I put down the phone

Moon's shining down on Orchard road

And I'm feeling like a schoolboy again

And tonight, I'll see you in my dreams of Orchard roadIt's funny, but I thought I'd never go back

I think sometimes I might loose track

But I remember you and the things we do

I want it backIn Orchard road, you've got my heart

I left it in your doorway

In Orchard road, a welcome back

Is waiting there just for meIn Orchard road, the sun will shine

Again I know, I know

In Orchard road, you keep my love

Just waiting there for meIt's eight o'clock and the dawn's arrived

Orchard road it's breakfast time

I climb in my car and I turn the key and I'm gone

I am coming home to Orchard road I'm coming home
