

Summer Running

Billy Idol

We spent the summer running
Scared of what they might do
After we spent the winter crying
In the mist we came all unglued Sometimes back to school
It seems so sad and nothings new
Until I spent the summer running
Just we two, just we two I followed you to Zion
The four corners and the redwoods too
The Mesa in Arizona
The Grand Canyon and Las Vegas too All the bad-brained people
One of these days well run over you
And spend the summer running
Just we two, just we two I dont walk, I run
Ridin into the sun
On my motorcycle
We can just blow I dont know whats ahead
We dont talk of the dead
On my motorcycle
Come on, lets go Cause theres always
Theres always
The world you know
The world you know Well, I wear a grim
Smile day after day, baby
As Im working into our future Oh yeah And I take a quick drink
In a world that stinks, baby
Cause Im standing up against the furies Oh yeah I can escape
Ive got a Batmans cape
And I can cover myself, and baby
Yes, Im flying, Im flying, Im flying tonight Oh yeah Just we two Runnin down the highway
Smilin at the problems Cause theres always
Theres always
The world you know
The world you know We spent the summer running
Just we two, just we two, just we two
