

The Lamp Is Low

Robin McKelle

Another perfect day has come to a close
Twelve o'clock, all is well
And while a sleepy world is lost in repose
Let my heart softly tell you Dream beside me in the midnight glow
The lamp is low
Dream and watch the shadows come and go
The lamp is low While you linger in my arms
My lips will sigh I love you so Dream the sweetest dream we'll ever know
Tonight the moon is high
The lamp is low Dream the sweetest dream we'll ever know
Tonight the moon is high
The lamp is low
