

Cowboy Killer

Jason Aldean

She got a way of lighting up the neon, turning heads
She got a thing that turns me on, burning red
Something 'bout them blues eyes staring right back in mine
I swear I see the line
She's a cowboy killer in a shotgun sea, talking blonde wildfire holding onto me
She got a knock-out love and a goodbye kiss
Got that thirty-thirty smoke rolling off of her lips
Lose my breath, knock me dead every time I'm with her
Yeah, she's a cowboy killer
She make a night wild and restless, run it off the tracks
She's riding the line of crazy and reckless, and damn I love that She's a cowboy killer in a shotgun sea, talking blonde wildfire holding onto me
She got a knock-out love and a goodbye kiss
Got that thirty-thirty smoke rolling off of her lips
Lose my breath, knock me dead every time I'm with her
Yeah, she's a cowboy killer
Something 'bout them blues eyes staring right back at mine
I swear I see the line
She's a cowboy killer in a shotgun sea, talking blonde wildfire holding onto me
She got a knock-out love and a goodbye kiss
Got that thirty-thirty smoke rolling off of her lips
Lose my breath, knock me dead every time I'm with her
Yeah, she's a cowboy killer
Yeah, a cowboy killer
She's a cowboy killer
