Souleye

Verse 1

It all begins with the serpent /
See the situation change with this /
Itâ€™s alchemical starts from the mineral /
You gotta fuel the fire for the flame of creation /
Every day is brand new prevent stagnation /
The process is intertwining envious energy /
Will not enter in to my vibe /
I am high from the heavens and according to the legend /
All lost souls shall find their way home for Armageddon /
No matter what, who, how, or even why we behaving like this /
The ancients who ascended the teachers they form their lessons /
We break bread with the brethren /
One step forward toward a totem pole of your own soul /
A memoir written in a riddled rhyme scheme /
Art is healing go ahead let it out scream /
No need to hold it in / We all become holy when /
We open to the omnipresent essence is the key /
Motivation Is a powerful torch in the night /
Like a totem pole the top a eagle in flight evolution /
Children of the underground they can hear it now /
Echo reverberation lets go the portals open for your paradise /
Close your eyes ouroboros is a paradox /
Itâ€™s no surprise meet me at the dragon /
Aka the milky way we on the best trip moving to face the galaxy /
