

Summer Romance

Supertramp

In the middle of our summer romance
He walked up to her and he asked her to dance
I could see the old love light in her eyes
See the love light in her eyes It took a while to say, how's your new love, babe? My heart was beating with a rage like thunder
And when I saw him, I began to wonder
I could see the old love light in his eyes
See the love light in his eyes It took a while to say, how's your new love, babe?
How's your new love, babe? Well, in the middle of our summer romance
He walked up to her, he said, Please, give me another chance
I could see the old love light in her eyes
See the love light in her eyes It took a while to say, how's your new love, babe?
Yes, it did, it did, it did It took a while to say, how's your new love, babe?
Took a while to say, how's your new love, babe?
