

XOXO

Beyoncé©

all you need is a little bit of lovin kissin and huggin wait before you leave! give me that xoxo we can get a little bit closer you know that i want ya girl before you leave! i need that xoxo yeah xoxo from the first day i seen her i knew had to meet her show her how a mans supposed to treat her make her believe take her all around the world (its on m, get whatever you like) i'm all yours baby, no if and's or maybes` i wanna make you go crazy let me show you off tonight we can keep it all so personal on tereal aint nobody gotta know so before you go that XO

all you need is a little bit of lovin kissin and huggin wait before you leave! give me that xoxo we can get a little bit closer you know that i want ya girl before you leave! i need that xoxo yeah xoxo now there's nothin for me to spoil ya i'll do anything or ya just as long as you're my girl you can have the whole world and all the finer things your life will never be the same i'm trying to give you all the attention you've been missin ive been what your looking for (for sure) let me take you out tonight you know that i can do you right oh we can keep it all so personal on tereal aint nobody gotta know so before you go that XO

all you need is a little bit of lovin kissin and huggin wait before you leave! give me that xoxo we can get a little
X is for the love and the O is for the right away (xoxo) so if you got the special one by your side let me hear you say (xoxo)
you can leave it in a message or in a text so i can get it girl (xoxo) so when you think of me you already know XO
all you need is a little bit of lovin kissin and huggin wait before you leave! give me that xoxo we can get a little bit closer you know that i want ya girl before you leave! i need that xoxo yeah xoxo
