

the place

Inc.

the price to be by his side i know I have to try to be my best because that is all he ever wants i know theres something more when i feel it my tears fall that is when im at my best nothing more nothingless you seem like you already know seem like you already know i feel like youve been here before
time only makes it strong in the seconds in the song thats why it hurts when somethings wrong hope i never wait too long never right, never wrong
you already know
i feel like weve been here before
the place that we already know
i feel like weve been here before
