Never Again

Trampled By Turtles

I?ll never write another song again.
Because they all sound the same,
And I should be ashamed,
And I?m breakin? my guitar as soon as I get home.

I?ll never have another drink again.
Because I woke up on the floor,
Cant remember anymore,
And it?s goin down the drain as soon as I get home.

Never Again?
Never Again?

I?ll never smoke another cigarette.
Because it smells like shit,
I cant afford to pay for it,
And I?ll break em' all in half as soon as I get home.

I?m never gunna fall in love again.
Because they?ll break you in two
And there aint nothin you can do
And I?m unpluggin my card as soon as I get home.

Never Again?
Never Again?

I?m never gunna vote for president.
Because they?re all the same,
Close your eyes and pick a name,
We should throw the bastards out as soon as we get home.

Never Again?
Never Again?
