

Agonised

Benediction

Agonising road to ruin
Fright filled roots of soul
Iconoclastic nightmare watching
Grief now uncontrolled
Uncertain loss, my pain - frustration
Now to reign regret
Wreaking havoc, near undoing
The trauma that dejectsDesolated mindful obstruct
Shattered scream to loudly erupt
Pierce the night, a resounding crash
Lying dormant, bleeding and gashedAgonised
Innocence removed fleetingly
Childhood replayed
Remembering the best of times
Still remain dismayed
Near loss of one who's so close
Loving relative
Wishing I could turn the clock back
Lose my will to liveDriven to distraction grossly
Morbid mind, it roars
Taken from this mortal coil?
Is the Reaper at the door?
Linear thinking - positive
Yet defeat never stops
Overriding all the senses
Heart begins to drop
