Frank & Ava

Suzanne Vega

On the way to the bidet
Is when the trouble used to start
It didn't mean, she wasn't queen
Of the tinderbox that was his heartHer fire, his desire meant that Everything must come undone
And so now we know
That it's not enough to be in loveNot enough to be in love
Not enough to be in loveHe's so true, she is too
She says, I love you, Frank and then they drank
All night, what a fight
He says it isn't me you're thinking ofShe's cool, it makes him cruel
And they needle 'til the jewels go raining
Down upon the ground
She says it's not enough to be in loveIt's not enough, it's not enough
It's not enough to be in love
It's not enough, it's not enough
(Not enough to be in love)
It's not enough to be in loveThey woke up and they broke up
They were so volatile and all the while
Life passed and it went fast
And yet they never could forgetTheir chemistry, like you and me
It proved to keep them both apart for life
And so now we know
That it's not enough to be in loveNot enough to be in love
Not enough to be in love
Not enough to be in love
Not enough to be in love
