Turn and Run

Neil Finn

Theres a light overhead, overhead
In the sky overhead, overhead
And Im with you now
Body and music and mind
And were silent and still
Everything's so out of control tonightIn a plane thats flying past
At a speed that makes me cry
Have you left me now
To trouble that wont let me lie
Im awake all the time
You know where I stand
Holding my plastic gunTurn and run
You cold killers of innocence
Against us theres no defense
Your flash and your wickedness
You cant break our loveTie my hands behind my back
Put a gag on top of my mouth
But I wont give you up
Till silverware's covered in dust
And my shoes fall apart
The tumbleweed runs
Over my desert heartTurn and run
You cold killers of innocence
Against us theres no defense
Your flash and your wickedness
Will surely bring you down againNow somehow we will stay afloat
We wont give in to the undertow
There're some things you will never know
But you cant break our love
[Incomprehensible] downBut you cant break our love
You can [incomprehensible] down
But you cant break our love
You cant break our love
You cant break our love
