

Milk and Tea

Well Planned Attack

Guess you saw
And you know
Cause eyes are never liars
But I'm done
Am I done?
I don't know shit about it
Nothing is really going on
Or I guess so So now should I drive you home
Or should I meet you in the backseat?
Cause I know
We both know
That is getting darker but the night's not over I smell troubles in the air
But that's not keeping me from fighting
I can't see shit in front of me
I stretch my arms in search of light
I've got a sick obsession for everything that hurts me
I won't give up to fight So i'm home
Am I home?
Right back where the heart is
But I'm done
Am I done?
What do you think about it?
I don't need troubles anymore
Or I guess so I miss driving to your place
And kiss you in the cold
Cause despite from what I say
That's where I belong I'm gonna miss you so
