

The Day We Meet Again

Moody Blues

The day we meet again
I'll be waiting there, I'll be waiting there for you
'Cos the years have been so lonely, like a dog without a home
It's dangerous when you find out
You've been drinking on your own
The day we meet again
We will walk in peace through the garden, down the road
Where the mist of time is lifting
See it rise in the air, like the shadow I was chasing
When I looked, it wasn't there, oh, no
Just in case you're wondering
What was really on my mind
It wasn't what you took my love
It's what you left behind
Just in case you're wondering
Will it really be the same?
Will it really be the same?
You know we're only living for the day we meet again
So hold on and don't let go
Time, it heals, you know, I know
The day we meet again
I'll be waiting there, I'll be waiting there for you
'Cos the years have been so lonely, like a dog without a home
It's dangerous when you find out
You've been drinking on your own
The day we meet again
We will walk in peace through the garden, down the road
Where the mist of time is lifting
See it rise in the air, like the shadow I was chasing
When I looked, oh, no, it wasn't there, oh, no
Oh, no
It wasn't there, it wasn't there, it wasn't there
Oh, no, oh, no, oh, no
