Misfit

Clarkkent

You never close your eyes
You never sleep at night
You are an emotional nightmare
You are a misfitYou like to hurt yourself
And when you don't know why
You're trapped inside your own hell
No one else knows your nameSee the misfit in the mirror
See the freak that lives inside
See the misfit in the mirror crySee the one nobody wanted
Shattered by a world of lies
See the misfit in the mirror dieYou always crash your car
You're like a permanent scar
You're just a walking disaster
You are the opposite of moving fasterWhen you've been pushed around
When all your walls fall down
And when they call you misfit
It's so hard to stop the rageSee the misfit in the mirror
See the freak that lives inside
See the misfit in the mirror crySee the one nobody wanted
Shattered by a world of lies
See the misfit in the mirror dieI see you and I see
Everything that I hate
Darkness all around me
Makes me suffocateSee the misfit in the mirror
See the freak that lives inside
See the misfit in the mirror crySee the one nobody wanted
Shattered by a world of lies
See the misfit in the mirror die
