

Hanna Hanna

China Crisis

Hanna hanna, she sing
Mixed emotion and a garden strange
Hanna hanna, she sing We're living on a catwalk, catwalk
And swimming with the sharks Tape record her and telephone
Conversations in pyramids alone
Why should I stop to think what they're about
Why should I stop, stop to think what they're about We're living on a catwalk, catwalk
And swimming with the sharks
Biting into poison, poison
In a city all full of fucking sharks She sing
A guitar plays
In a garden strange Hanna hanna, she dream
Mixed emotion and a garden strange
She never there, she never there
Hanna hanna, she dream
