

Stalker

Macy Gray

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

People say that I'm your stalker
The way I follow you 'round
You are the only thing
That I talk about when I'm talking
Say my affection is too much
You say it's smothering
And that may be so
But who's gonna love you
Like I do, if I go?
Just like the ocean need the water
And the sea needs the breeze
Baby, you need me
I am your submissive hoe
I am your desperate bitch
And that's alright with me
As long as I'm the one you kiss
I drink you, eat you, I dream
And my love is on fire
Look away, look away
Who else you gonna find
With dreams like mine?
Just like the ocean need the water
And the sea needs the breeze
Baby, you need me
Now, baby, if you kick me out, now
If you kick me out, now
Who gonna wear your tattoo?
Who gonna crazy fuck you?
Call you ninety times a day
Who gonna freak you
Freak you like the way
And who gonna drive you home tonight?
Do, do
Do, do
(Yes, you do)
Do, do
(You need me)
Do, do
(Yes, you do)
Do, do
(Yes, you do)

Do, do
(Yes, you do) Just like the ocean need the water
And the sea needs the breeze
Baby, you need me Just like the ocean need the water
And the sea needs the breeze
Baby, you need me You need me
Yes, you do
You need me
