Imagining

GTR

I've been out of touch again
From all that's happening around you
I've become a different man
Can't seem to stand stillIt was all a big mistake
Once we were partners in crime
We went off our separate ways
Never performing in time, in timeImagining, all the lies you were told
Imagining, they were true you withhold
Imagining, is it real or a myth?
Imagining, in the world that we liveYou were still dependent on Lovers on your terms, your terms
Would you entertain again?
Would you be losing your freedom, freedom?Imagining, all the lies you were told
Imagining, they were true you withhold
Imagining, is it real or a myth?
Imagining, in the world that we liveImagining, imagining, imagining, imagining, imagining
Imagining, imagining, imagining, imagining
