Antichrist I

Saviour Machine

My name, my face, my eyes, my rage
My flesh, my blood, my father, my God, my horror
My mouth, my words, my image, my world
My throne, my reign, my empire, my pain, my terrorMy kingdom come, my will be done
My power will call, my mark for all
My forces will command, my law, my hand
My legend, my thorns, my legacy, my hornsMy wound, my head, my sword, my death
My body, my misery, my rapture, my mystery
My children, my sacrifice, my temple, my soul device
My hatred, my sins, my life blood beginsBehold, God's grace is gone
His face is all that I desire to see
Behold, the deceiver must come unto be
Behold, I will drive the nails deeper into thee
