

Warriors (feat. Slaughterhouse)

Royce da 5'9"

It feels like we are heading for a meltdown
I'm sweating as the seconds start to run out
I know that there's a glitch in the system

We're breaking down the walls of this prison
We are the warriors, we are the warriors
We are the warriors, we are the warriors
So shine your light

Push the enemy back
When you're under attack
It will protect you
Kill the night
All we need is a spark
We can bury the dark, ignite

Come on and shine your light
We fought our misery in the inferno

Illuminate our lives, we are eternal
Collided in a head-on collision

We sacrifice ourself for the mission
We are the warriors, we are the warriors
We are the warriors, we are the warriors
So shine your light

Push the enemy back
When you're under attack
It will protect you
Kill the night
All we need is a spark
We can bury the dark, ignite

Come on and shine your light
Come on and shine your light
Madness come

Surrounds me as I'm fallin
Bad shit happens to all of us
It's actually a fabric of garment
You know I didn't last this long in,
Anything less than a warrior, average

Now I'm savage

Better than the has been
We are the warriors, we are the warriors

We are the warriors
So shine your light
Push the enemy back
When you're under attack
It will protect you
Kill the night
All we need is a spark
We can bury the dark, ignite

Come on and shine your light
We are the warriors, we are the warriors
We are the warriors
Come on and shine your light
We are the warriors, we are the warriors
We are the warriors
Come on and shine your light
