

Nancy Whiskey

Shane MacGowan

As I went down through Glasgow city
Just to see what I might spy
What should I see but Nancy Whiskey
A playful twinkle in her eye Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy oh I bought her, I drank her, I had another
Ran out of money, so I did steal
She ran me ragged, Nancy Whiskey
For seven years, a rollin' wheel Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy oh The more I held her, the more I loved her
Nancy had her spell on me
All I knew was lovely Nancy
The things I needed I could not see Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy oh As I awoke to slake my thirst
As I tried crawling from my bed
I fell down flat, I could not stagger
Nancy had me by the legs Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Oh Come on landlady, what's the owing Tell me what there is to pay
Fifteen shillings that's the reckoning
Now pay me quickly and go away Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy oh
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy oh

Songwriters

SHANE MACGOWAN Published by

Lyrics © DOWNTOWN MUSIC PUBLISHING LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>