Babe

Monika

Babe, don't worry, babe
You know that I can love you more than this
No, oh please don't go
This world is asking for a happy couple married,
married and then bored

You have never loved me like the way I do
It was summer, more than any truth
You have never called me just to hear my voice
Bloodiness and numbers burning in my mind
It is summer turn me into ice
Please don't look at, look at me in the eyes
Oh please don't look at me

My baby, your favorite baby is gone
Swim away from me, I have no time to call

Babe, I'm right here, babe
You know that I can't hate you more than this
No, oh please don't go
This world is asking for a happy couple married
Married and then bored

Sunny baby it's over let it go
