

Stranger Stranger

Bad Company

Theres a crazy moon, a crazy sky
Looking down on me
Ive been losing track of timeIts been the hardest day
The longest night Ive ever spent alone
I cant get you off my mindYou know what Ive been missing
Do I really have to say?
We talk but you dont listen
Its not always been that wayNo, shes a stranger, stranger
Youre not the girl I knew, will you ever be the same?
You act like a stranger, stranger, tell me it aint true
Wont you please explain, why youre so strange?In the morning gloom, this empty room
I can see your face
When I look again, youre goneYour memory so close to me
It leaves a trace
Wont you tell me what went wrong?No sign, no words, no warning
We can never be the same, no
When you walked out that morning
You know, you left nothing but the blameI know that youre a stranger, stranger
Youre not the girl I knew, will you ever be the same?
You act like a stranger, stranger, tell me it aint true
Wont you please explain, why youre so strange?Oh, youre a stranger, stranger
Youre not the girl I knew, will you ever be the same?
You act like a stranger, stranger, tell me it aint true
Wont you please explain, why youre so strange?Stranger, stranger
Youre not the girl I knew, will you ever be the same?
You act like a stranger, stranger, tell me it aint true
Wont you please explain, why youre so strange?
