Choke (Early Version)

Lagwagon

Choke choke pride
Still I could only wait for you to decide
Tear it all apart
You break my heartWhy don't you follow through Follow through
And the day ends
A so called friendA drunken bed
How could you with
Why would you
All of themNo one owns you
Just keep me hanging here
Tell me you need me dear
Tell me you're sure I shouldn't fearLies lies lies
Choke choke please
Have another drink on me
My love humiliationI gave you every chance to leave
And you stayed just long enough
To bury me
As I understand what no one can seeI stop
And all these words seem selfish
And anger you
And none of it is trueBut all of them confess until I choke
I tough I knew a true love
I used to think you really cared
I used to think I knew true innocenceI though that you were that
I know you to well when you lie
I hope you choke on them
And see for meFor me
And all these words seem selfish and
Anger you
And you were always true
Am I the only want that hears you lie?
