Tuck it Away

NoMeansNo

Mixed emoitions up for grabs in bed
He wants some love unreal
Fixture of his imagination
He finds love an easy victim
Pretending you don't care
Pretending you don't mind
Pretending it's all right
Pretending you're just fine
Tuck it awayIn all her best pretensions, she made
Real all her inventions, now she
Everything she knew she would be
She finds love an easy victim
Pretending you don care
Pretending you don mind
Pretending it all right
Pretending youe just fine
Tuck it awayWe all agree it such a bore
Don talk about it anymore
We all agree it such a bore
Don ever talk about it
Don even think about it
Tuck it away
