Through the Gate

Artension

Packed their bags and left that day one way ticket to outer space mohtership has sailed away blinded by the comets fallFaithfully they follow, into the fire they ride fearless hope by their side if only they knew the stories he told were untrueThrough the gate it's too late cast their lives into the lake of fate
senseless tragedy if only they'd wait, it's too late through the gateCoins of silver for toils to pay, made the potion and drank their lives away mothership did not come through, blinded by the comet HaleDon't be fooled by men who say"my new religion is the only way" mother's love is there for you put your faith in what is realFaithfully they follow, into the fire they ride
fearless hope by their side if only they knew the stories he told were untrueThrough the gate it's too late cast their lives into the lake of fate
senseless tragedy if only they'd wait, it's too late through the gateFaithfully they follow, into the fire they ride fearless hope by their side if only they knew the stories he told were untrueThrough the gate it's too late cast their lives into the lake of fate
senseless tragedy if only they'd wait, it's too late through the gate
