Please Forgive Me

Jimmy Scott

Please forgive me
For the love crimes I committed, forgive me
I was wrong, yes I did it

Please forgive me
For my little white lies, forgive me
I didn't mean to make you cry

I played the game that could be played by two
Not thinking for a minute I'd be losing you
There's no forgetting what I've done to you
But there's forgiving if your love was really true

Please forgive me
I need your romance, I'm sorry
Give me one more chance
Darling please forgive me
