Jonny Nash

Ya
Gone
I couldn't murder your promise
Right before my eyes
The revolution of my psychosis
Kept me outta the way
Once, inside, all I hold is ash
Foul, suppressing every feelin'
I'm in so much pain
I have every fuckin' right to hate you
I can't take it
The hardest part was knowin'
That I could never be you
Now all I do is sit around
And wish I could forget you
My demise
I took a life worth living and
Made it worth a mockery
I deny
I fall, but they keep on coming
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
Who are you to me?
Who am I to you?
Is this a lesson in nepotistic negligence?
By default, you are my only link to the outside
Psychosomatic suicide
Where were you?
When I was down
Can you show me a way?
To face everyday with this face
Goodbye
My demise

I took a life worth living and
Made it worth a mockery

I deny
I fold, but they keep on coming
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
Ya
Ya, when I blur my eyes
They make the whole world breath
I see you fuckin' me
And I am absolutely
Controllin' every urge to mutilate
The one and only answer
So much for memories
I wanna dress in your insecurities
And be the perfect you, I'm through
I'm out stretched out for all to loathe
Here we go, the ultimate irony
Ya, ya, ya
No, my demise
I took a life worth living and
Made it worth a mockery
I deny
I fall, but they keep on coming
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
I'm always ready to die, but you're killing me
(Stop)
Killing me
(Stop)
Killing me
(Stop)
Killing me

(Stop)
Killing me
