

Real Life

Cog

Underrated, overstated real life.
Integrated, that's all right, just realise.
Exploited, ain't so jaded real life.
Dressed as conscience, masquerading.
I hope you noticed when I said it's not OK,
and I know you're ready.
Into the rip, I'm heading out again.
Over my head, I can't get out of it.
Dial'n up, you know this story.
Turn your head the other way.
Into the rip, I'm heading out again.
Over my head, I can't get out of it.
Underrated, overstated real life.
Integrated, that's all right, just realise.
Exploited, ain't so jaded real life.
Dressed as conscience, masquerading.
All those backward thoughts you're having,
got the low down sussed, evacuate.
The golden bus is running late.
Into the rip, I'm heading out again.
Over my head, I can't get out of it.
Firing line, firing line, firing line.
I realise real life.
And I hope you notice when I said it's not OK.
Those backward thoughts you're having,
with the low down sussed, evacuate. Into the rip.
