

Too Numb to Cry

Zakk Wylde

I see you across the room
Search for some happiness ain't anytime soon
Turmoil has turned you inside
Sift through your pages of miracles you wish to find [Chorus]
When you're too numb to cry
And you're just left wondering why
When you're too numb to cry
And you're just left wondering why To change in the blink of an eye
If you could you surely would wave yourself goodbye
I try and I try and I try
Get a hold on your suffering
Peace in which you don't wish to buy
